RUPANKAR

He has the wonderful gift from God - his music, his voice! And the intensity to explode on stage! He has the ability to rush your adrenaline - through the various numbers he delivers so powerfully. He is the versatile singer of the day - Rupankar.

Today he is in the limelight - all over the media. He has sailed over oceans of music on a voyage that has engulfed his days and nights. The music studio is now his home - the musicians are his family members. To meet the rising demand, he needs to record every hour - for albums, title music of serials and films, advertising jingles. During nights he is on the move from one town to another to perform on-stage for his innumerable fans. At other times he is at TV channel studios - either for performance or for anchoring. Rupankar, today, is the heart-throb of the millions and loved by all generations.
